* * * *

Next Sunday the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches makes its annual appeal for support. This servant of the Churches in the Philadelphia area is doing an outstanding piece of work in doing those things which the individual churches and denominations could not do by themselves, such as surveying new areas as they are developed. I hope more members of this parish will contribute to the Council.

Jubilate Deo, page 15, Chant 645
Sermon Hymn 48 Stuttgart
Anthem Grieg

God's Son hath set me free
From Satan's tyranny,
From base desire, enslavement dire,
From fear of death and hell's hot fire
Lord Christ did intercede,
With God for me did plead;
He underwent my punishment,
To torture, death was sent.
I cannot fathom love so great
However much I contemplate:
That He could be so merciful to me,
A sinner frail, whom naught could suit
But tasting the forbidden fruit;
By day, by night,
Old Satan's might
My soul had captured quite.

My heart laughs blithe and bold
When I my grave behold;
Nor flowery bed nor princely stead,
Can show a couch so free from dread.
To where God's castle stands
In Deathless Life's fair lands death pilots me
Across the sea - towards eternity.
Though stormy winds about me still
Are blowing contrary and chill
My soul is whole and craves the perfect goal.
My spirit leaps, like deer or hind,
To think of leaving sin behind;
Oh blessed sign! Christ's Cross doth shine,
Makes bliss eternal mine.

Recessional Hymn 542 Duke Street

LORD, I believe man is no helpless thing that like a bird in spring comes fluttering to the light of life, and out into the darkness of long death. The breath of God is in him, and his age-long strife with evil has a meaning and an end. Though twilight-dim his vision be, yet he can see Thy truth, and in the cool of evening Thou, his friend, dost walk with him and talk (did not the word take flesh) of the great destiny that waits him and his race, in worlds that are to be.

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death.

Greater Love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friend.

Who His own self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation.

That ye should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

9:30 A.M. HOLY COMMUNION

Processional Hymn 522 Bohemian Brethren

Response to Decalogue, page 68, Chant 702

Collect, Epistle and Gospel, page 127

Anthem J.S.Bach

Jesus, Jesus, Thou art mine,
In Thy mercy now receive me;
Grant that I may be Thine own,
That my life may ever please Thee,
I myself to Thee surrender,
Thine in life and death remaining,
Cling to Thee with faithful heart!
Jesus, Jesus, Thou art mine!

Jesus, Jesus, Thou art mine,
And although all gladness leave me
And despair shall fill my heart,
May I still in joy receive Thee,
Turn to me, O precious Savior,
And Thy Holy Spirit send me!
Fill Thou me with hope and faith!
Jesus, Jesus, Thou art mine!

Hymn after Prayer for Christ's Church 394

Lesson: Isaiah 40:21

Anthem ..... F. Mendelssohn

He, watching over Israel, slumbers not nor sleeps.
Shouldst thou, walking in grief, languish, He will quicken thee.

Responsive Reading — The Canticle of St. Francis

O most high, omnipotent, good Lord God, to thee belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing.

For our brother the sun, who is our day and who brings us the light; who is fair, and radiant with a very great splendour;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister the moon, and for the stars, which thou hast set clear and lovely in heaven;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother the wind, and for air and cloud, calms and all weather;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister water, who is very serviceable unto us and humble and precious and clean;

Praised be our Lord.

For our brother fire, by whom thou lightest up the night, and who is fair and merry, and very mighty and strong;

Praised be our Lord.

For our mother the earth, which doth sustain us and keep us and bringeth forth divers fruits, and flowers of many colors, and grass;

Praised be our Lord.

For all those who pardon one another for thy love's sake, and who bear weakness and tribulation;

Praised be our Lord.

For our sister, the death of the body;

Praised be our Lord.

Blessed are they who peaceably shall endure, walking by thy most holy will; for thou, O most Highest, shall give them a crown.

Praise ye and bless ye the Lord, and give thanks unto him, and serve him with great humility. Amen.

Let us pray

O GOD, we thank thee for this universe, our great home; for its vastness and its riches, and for the manifoldness of the life which teems upon it and of which we are a part. We praise thee for the arching sky and the blessed winds, for the driving clouds and the constellations on high. We praise thee for the salt sea and the running water, for the everlasting hills, for the trees, and for the grass under our feet. We thank thee for our senses by which we can see the splendor of the morning, and hear the jubilant songs of love, and smell the breath of springtime. Grant us, we pray thee, a heart wide open to all this joy and beauty, and save our souls from being so steeped in care or so darkened by passion that we pass heedless and unseeing when even the thorn-bush by the wayside is aflame with the glory of God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Period of Silence

PART II

"And in One Lord Jesus Christ"

Hymn 363: "Lord of All Hopefulness" ..... Slane

Lesson: St. John 14:1-13

Anthem ..... Alfred Whitehead

In Thee is gladness, Amid all sadness
Jesus, sunshine of my heart!
By Thee are given The joys of heaven
Thou the true redeemer art!
Our souls thou wakest, Our bonds thou breakest,
Who trusts Thee surely Hath built securely,
He stands for ever: Hallelujah!
Our hearts are pining To see Thy shining,
Dying or living To Thee are cleaving,
Naught can us sever: Halleulujah.
He intercedeth, And ever pleadeth,
Jesus, the truth and the way.
Fair as a flower, Waiteth the hour
Them that seek Thee will find Thee today.
Thy love availeth, though earth us faileth,
Who calleth clearly, will find thee early
Never forsaken. Hallelujah!
All sin forgiven, earnest of Heaven.
Peace like a river, floweth forever
New songs awaken! Hallelujah!
In Thee is gladness! Hallelujah

An Offering of Praise and Adoration to Christ

Lift up your hearts,
We lift them up unto the Lord.

He laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not: I am the first and the last; I am he that liveth and was dead; and behold I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

I saw in the midst of the throne a Lamb as it had been slain.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Lo, I am with you all the days;

Even unto the end of the world.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches, and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and blessing.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

Let us pray

O KING of men, Master of our lives, entering into thy glory by the cross, to whom all authority is given, both in heaven and on earth, we acknowledge thy sovereignty over every realm of life. Come, O Lord, enter into thy kingdom; subdue the world by the might of thy love.

Blessing and honor, and glory and power, be unto thee for ever and ever.

O Son of Mary,	Consecrate our homes.
Son of David,	Cleanse our politics.
Son of Man,	Rule the affairs of nations.
Son of God,	Give us eternal life.
Jesus the Carpenter,	Deliver a world which waits for thee.
Jesus the Christ,	Save us from ourselves.
Jesus, the Saviour,	Renew thy Church.
Jesus the Life-giver,	Perfect thy creation.
Word of God,	Hallow our daily work.

Lord exhalted at the Father's side,

Raise us to live with thee in God.

He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death. Therefore hath God highly exalted him and given him a name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

I will not leave you comfortless.

I will come to you.

I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice.

And your joy no man taketh from you.

What shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

All. Neither life nor death, nor things present, nor things to come, can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Alleluia, Amen.

A Period of Silence

PART III

"And in The Holy Ghost — The Lord and Giver of Life"

Hymn 377 ..... Lew Trenchard

Lesson: St. John 14:15-19, 25-29

Spiritual ..... (arr. Robt. Shaw)

"Set down, servant!" "I cain' set down.
"My soul's so happy I cain' set down"

"My Lawd, you know dat you promise' me
"Promise me a long white robe and a pair of shoes."

"Go yonder angel, Fetch me a pair of shoes,
"Place dem on my servant's feet. Now, servant, you set down."

"My Lawd, you know dat you promise me,
"Promise' me a long white robe and a golden waist band."

"Go yonder angel, Fetch me a golden waist band.
"Place it roun' my servant's waist. Now servant you set down."

"Set down, servant." "I cain' set down."

Thanksgiving for the Work of God's Spirit

O LORD, who hast set before us the great hope that thy kingdom shall come on earth, and has taught us to pray for its coming, make us ever ready to thank thee for the signs of its dawning, and to pray and work for that perfect day when thy will shall be done on earth as it is in heaven. For the work of thy Spirit within and beyond the bounds of thy visible Church.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the history of the world, through peaceful advance, and through pain and tumult,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of the Spirit in the history of our own country, through its heroes and leaders, in statecraft, law and industry,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in science and commerce, in literature and art,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the slow triumph of truth over error,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the growing desire for true brotherhood, between every class and nation.

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the spread of education, and in the development of a fuller life for individuals, with healthier surroundings and better conditions,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the deepening sense of human worth in all nations and classes, and in the growing reverence for womanhood and childhood,

We thank thee, O Lord.

For the work of thy Spirit in the Church, which will not cease until it joins all nations and kindreds and tongues and people into one great family, to thy praise and glory,

We thank thee, O Lord, Amen.

One half hour is set aside each week for the purpose of bringing before God the multifarious intercessions and thanksgivings of the people of St. Martin's. This is an extremely important aspect of the church's life, both in the fact that God is rightly approached and worshipped, and in the union that these prayers create among the participants. We urge you to attend Ante-Communion and Intercessions at 10 A.M. each Thursday.

There will be "Juice after Service" on the porch of the Parish House. Mrs. Kenneth Koerber is Hostess this morning.

"The 'ecumenical vision' is much broader than its organized manifestations in councils of churches at the local, national and world levels. As one Bishop put it, 'To deal with the Church as if she really had nothing to do with the one Lord Christ but only with the opinions of men, as if there were no one truth, one Lord and one faith at the heart of our Church, that is unbearable. And if that is so ... then there is no escape from the painful, difficult, uncomfortable, costly encounter which we call the Ecumencial Movement.' "

(from "No Darkness at All" by James W. Kennedy)

Jubilate Deo, Page 15, Chant 643

Creed, Versicles, Collects and Prayers, Page 15 ff

Hymn 563, "He who would valiant be" . . . . . St. Dunstan's

During the singing of this hymn, the Teachers and Officers of the Church School will come forward to the Altar Rail.

Rector: Dearly beloved, you stand here before God and this company as chosen leaders in the program of Christian Education. You have one of the most important and essential offices within the gift of the Church. Your work is therefore not to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but seriously, conscientiously, and as in the sight of God. With all this in mind, are you now ready to undertake the duties of your various offices?

Response: We are ready, God being our helper. And we here dedicate both our souls and minds to Him in the work of His Church in a sober, righteous and Godly life. In this resolution, we ask Him to confirm and strengthen us that day by day we may grow in grace as leaders in our Church School.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

Teachers: O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the Godly, grant us in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in Thy light we may see light and in Thy straight path may not stumble, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officers and Teachers will return to their places.

The Rector will address the Congregation as follows:

Do you, as the Congregation, Parents and Friends, in the presence of God, and of this entire company, promise to give these chosen leaders the wholehearted cooperation so necessary to the accomplishment of their task?

Response: We do so promise, God being our helper.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, heavenly Father, Who hast blessed us with the joy and care of children: give us light and strength so to train them, that they may love whatsoever things are true and pure and lovely and of good report, following the example of their Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector will address the Church School pupils as follows:
As pupils of the Church School of St. Martin-in-the-Fields and disciples of Jesus Christ, will you serve Him, by faithfully trying to live in His way in your homes, in your community, in your schools and in your Church, as you promised, or as was promised for you, at your baptism?

Response: I will by God's help.

Rector: Let us pray. (All standing)

DEFEND, O Lord, these thy children with Thy heavenly grace, that they may continue Thine forever; and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more until they come unto Thine everlasting Kingdom. Amen.

All: ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, Who art the only source of light and life; send down upon this School the rich gifts of Thy good Spirit, that Thy truth may be sincerely sought, faithfully received and obediently followed. Endue its teachers with wisdom, zeal and patience. Inspire its scholars with the spirit of truth, honor and humility. May they day by day grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

"INASMUCH"

As we go into the holiday season and become open to pressure from every side to eat and buy more than we really want or need, let's set aside a little for the "Share Our Surplus" work of the Presiding Bishop's Fund.

The dollar which buys two pounds of food here will provide over 300 pounds of our government surplus foods for refugees.

Envelopes for this purpose are available on the table at the back of the church or in the Parish House,(checks should be made payalbe to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief and designated S.O.S) and may be placed on the Alms Basin when the spirit moves you. Remember "Our Surplus is their Salvation."

NOTICES

We are glad to welcome back to St. Martins this morning, Dr. Joan Caddell, who was one of our most faithful Church School Teachers for a good many years. She leaves a week from tomorrow on a Rockefeller Foundation Grant for the Makerere Medical College, of the University of East Africa, in Kampola, Uganda, and it is most gracious of her to share this morning out of her busy schedule to be with us.

Next Sunday, St. Martin's Day, Veteran's Day, is also Loyalty Sunday, when we will make our pledges at all three services, to support St. Martin's Church during 1963.

For Faithfulness in the Use of This World's Goods.
ALMIGHTY GOD, whose loving hand hath given us all that we possess; Grant that we may honour thee with our substance, and remembering the account that we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of thy bounty; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Christmas

Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields

Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, Pa.

Christmas Day 1962

Processional Hymn 12: "O Come All Ye Faithful" .... Adeste Fidelis

Then shall be said this Bidding Prayer by the Minister, the Congregation all standing

Beloved in Christ:

Be it our care and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the Angels and in heart and mind to go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass and the Babe lying in a manger.

Therefore, let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our sin unto the glorious Redemption brought to us by this Holy Child; and let us make this Church glad with our carols of praise.

But first, because this of all things would rejoice His heart, let us pray to Him for the needs of the whole world and all His people; for peace upon the earth He came to save; for love and unity within the one Church He did build; and for brotherhood and good will amongst all men.

And particularly at this time let us remember before Him the poor, the cold, the hungry, and the oppressed; the sick and them that mourn; the aged and little children; and all those that know not the Lord Jesus or who love Him not; or who by sin have grieved His Heart of love.

Lastly let us remember before Him, them who rejoice with us but upon another shore and in a greater light, the multitude whom no man can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in this same Jesus, we forevermore are one.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of Heaven in the words which Christ Himself hath taught us:
Our Father . . .

Then shall the Minister say:

God, the Son of God, vouchsafe to bless us and aid us; and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring all, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn 20: "Of the Father's Love Begotten" ..... Divinum Mysterium

After this the Congregation shall sit for all the carols except those after the Third and Fifth Lessons for which they stand and join heartily.

Kent Hughson

First Lesson: Genesis 3:8-15 ..... Read by a Chorister

The story of Man's first Disobedience in the Garden of Eden.

Girl's Choir Carol: "Gabriel's Message" ..... Basque

The Angel Gabriel from heaven came,
His wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame
"All hail," said he, "thou lowly maiden Mary,
Most highly favored lady." Gloria!

"For known a blessed Mother thou shalt be,
All generations laud and honour thee,
Thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold,
Most highly favored lady." Gloria!

Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head,
"To me be as it pleaseth God," she said,
"My soul shall laud and magnify His Holy Name,
Most highly favored lady." Gloria!

Of her Emmanuel, the Christ was born
In Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn,
And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say:
"Most highly favored lady." Gloria!

Second Lesson: Genesis 22:15-18 ... Read by a Church School Scholar

God promises to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall all nations be blessed.

Choir Carol: "A Gallery Carol" ..... Traditional
(arr. Marlowe Johnson)

Rejoice and be merry in songs and in mirth!
O praise our Redeemer, all mortals on earth!
For this is the birthday of Jesus our King,
Who brought us salvation, His praises we sing!
Rejoice and be merry in songs and in mirth!
O praise our Redeemer, all mortals on earth!

A heavenly vision appeared in the sky;
Vast numbers of angels the shepherds did spy.
Proclaiming the birthday of Jesus our King,
Who brought us salvation, His praises we sing,
A very bright star in the East did appear
Which led the Wisemen from East to draw near.

They found the Messiah, sweet Jesus our King
Who brought us Salvation, His praises we sing.
And when they were come they their gifts unfold,
And unto Him offered myrrh, incense and gold.
So blessed for ever be Jesus our King
Who brought us Salvation, His praises we sing!

Third Lesson: Isaiah 9:2, 6, 7 Dick Miller
Read by a member of the Youth Fellowship

Congregational Carol 36: "What Child Is This" ..... Greensleeves

Fourth Lesson: Micah 5:2, 3, 4 Sam Madsira ..... Read by an Acolyte
Micah forseeth the glory of Bethlehem.

Choir Carol: "Sing, ye birds" ..... Mongolian
(arr. Malcolm Sargent)

Sing, ye birds, in the highest trees, "God on Earth is dwelling."
All mankind on bended knees Homage to Him giving.

Tell the wind to sing to the Child "Hosanna, gloria in excelsis."

Shine, O Sun, with thy golden light Where the Babe is lying;
Add thy rays to His halo bright, Sin and death defying.

Tell the lands to sing to the Child "Hosanna, gloria in excelsis."

Ring the bells on the highest hills, Our Salvation's dawning,
All the world with the good news thrills, For 'tis Christmas morning.

Choirs of Angels sing to the Child "Hosanna, gloria in excelsis."

Fifth Lesson: St. Luke 1:26-33, 38 Peter Stanley Read by a Church School Teacher
The Angel Gabriel visiteth the Virgin Mary.

Congregational Carol 31: "Good Christian Men Rejoice" In Dulci Jubilo

Sixth Lesson: St. Matthew 1:18-23 Barney Leahy ..... Read by an Usher
St. Matthew tells of Christ's Holy Birth.

Choir Carol: "Nature Carol" ..... Filipino Plantation Song
(arr. Malcolm Sargent)

Coral, amber, pearl and shell,
Gifts we gather from summer seas,
Find and bind make love the spell,
Take our gifts if they charm and please.
Aloha! Hanaw!*

Ruby, onyx, rain and dew
Weave a crown with your jeweled light,
Show and know whose world is new,
Who is Prince of the day and night.
Aloha! Hanaw!

Mountains, flowers, trees and hills,
Laugh and sing where His blessings fall,
Wind and waves, lagoons and rills,
Shout His love who is Lord of all.
Aloha! Hanaw!

Aloha* means "greetings" and Hanaw, "Dear Little One."

Charles Fizer

Seventh Lesson: St. Luke 2:8-16 ..... Read by a Vestryman

The Shepherds go unto the Manger.

Choir Carol: The Holly and the Ivy ..... English (arr. Frank Ahrold)

The holly and the ivy Now both are full well grown,
Of all the trees within the wood, The holly bears a crown.

Oh the rising of the sun, The running of the deer,
The playing of the merry organ, Sweet singing in the Choir.

The holly bears a blossom, As white as any flower,
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ, To be our sweet Saviour.

The holly bears a berry, As red as any blood,
And Mary bore sweet Jesus Christ, To do poor sinners good.

Geo Whitney

Eighth Lesson: St. Matthew 2:1-11 ..... Read by a Warden

The Wise Men are led to the Young Child by a Star.

Choir Carols: "The Holly is Up" ..... Peter Cork

The holly is up, the house is all bright
The tree is ready, the candles alight,
Rejoice and be glad, all children tonight.

The mother sings of our Lord's good grace
Whereby the child who saved our race
Was born and adored in a lowly place.

Once more the shepherds as she sings
Bend low and touch their strings
With gloria they hail the King of Kings.
(Gloria in excelsis Deo)

The children listening 'round the tree
Can hear the heavenly minstrelsy
The manger's marvel they can see.

Let every house be ready tonight,
The children gathered, the candles alight,
The music to hear, to see that sight.

"The Greenwood Tree" ..... Peter Cork

Sing hey for the greenwood tree, my boys,
Sing hey for the greenwood tree.

The slender beech and the sapling oak
That grow by the shadowy rill,
You may cut down both with a single stroke
You may cut down which you will.

But this you must know that as long as they grow,
Whatever the change may be,
You can never teach either oak or beech
To be aught but a greenwood tree.

Ninth Lesson: St. John 1:1-14 ..... Read by the Rector

St. John interprets the great mystery of the Incarnation.
(The Congregation will stand for this Lesson)

The Nicene Creed

The Christmas Collects

Hymn 197: "Let All Mortal Flesh" ..... Picardy

The Benediction

May the Almighty God, who by the Incarnation of His only begotten Son has chased away the darkness of the world, and irradiated the sacred night with His glorious Nativity, chase far from you the darkness of sin and fill your hearts with the light of virtue.

And may He, the great Shepherd, who willed that the joy of His Blessed Nativity should be made known to the shepherds by an Angel, pour upon you the refreshing dew of His benediction, and Himself lead you into pastures of eternal joy. And may He, who, by His Incarnation, united things earthly and heavenly, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and good will and make you comrades of the Heavenly Host.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost be with you all evermore. Amen.
